HOME OF THE JACKALOPE.

PRESS RELEASE**

On June 15, 2022 at approximately 1:08 P.M. the Joint Communications Center received a 911 call in reference to an 18 month old having a seizure at a residence located in the 600 Block of Olds Drive, Douglas, Wyoming. Communications Officer Sonya Parker maintained open communication and guidance with the caller and emergency services. While emergency services were enroute, it was further reported that the child had stopped breathing and was turning blue. Douglas Police Officer Adam Reiter arrived on scene and found the child not breathing. Officer Reiter immediately started Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR), thus saving the life of the child.
