Officer Johnson

Over the course of the last several months I have received numerous compliments on your interactions with both victims and suspects on your calls for service. I have heard the terms “professional” “compassionate” “caring” “respectful”, and “sense of humor”. Not only are you leaving a great impression of yourself within the community, but you are also enhancing police/community relations.

I have noticed that your dedication to duty is above reproach as well. I appreciate the fact that you take traffic safety seriously, working beyond the stop. You don’t just take a call for service; you dedicate yourself and your time to conduct a thorough investigation. You ask the necessary questions to complete a lawful, thorough investigation. You are a credit to yourself and the Douglas Police Department. I appreciate your dedication to duty and community service. You truly define our mission. Thank you for your hard work.

Respectfully Submitted,
